Rev. Jay Risner

Jay was the children's pastor at James River Assembly, a church of over ten thousand and Timberline Church, with an attendance of over six thousand. Jay was also a children's pastor for ten years in California before heading to the Mission Field (Africa) in 1990, as the coordinator of Children's Ministries for East Africa. In 1993, while in Kenya, he performed and produced a children's TV show, "Rainbow Surprise", that is reaching today over twenty-two million people each week. Jay currently oversees full production of the show.

Today Jay and Debbie work as "Children's Ministries Specialist International" for the Assemblies of God World Missions.
